THE CAUSE

In 1992, Ed Steffey, plant manager of Goodyear and board member of the Danville Area Chamber of Commerce, expressed his concerns on the lack of funding for local classroom projects. He convinced the Chamber's board to start education grants.

Using that combination of a passionate leader and Goodyear's beautiful golf course, a tournament was started with all proceeds being designated for the education grants. Other businesses were invited to participate and the education grant program was launched.

In 2007, Goodyear employee Bennett Gobble started a 5K race held on Goodyear Golf Course with all proceeds donated to the Education Open funds. Together, the Education 5K and The Ed Steffey Memorial Education Golf Tournament has raised more than $300,000 for education projects.
